Prices are subject to change due to size and overall condition of the vehicle. Extensive stains, tar build-up, road grime, paint damage, unordinary surface contaminants, pet hair & overall neglect require a much broader range of time, energy, and products to effectively correct and clean. Please note that set in stains or exterior surface damage may be irreversible. The customer will be notified if these conditions exist and the estimated price to correct, if possible. Butch's Lube N' Wash is not responsible for any personal items left in the customer's vehicle. Please remove any and all valuables and possessions prior to your detail appointment. Preexisting damage on vehicles will be noted prior to detail service. All services are performed on site at Butch's Lube N' Wash.
